Foundation Message

Wally Olson

On behalf of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation, welcome to the 42nd annual Awards Banquet. We are here today to celebrate our 2022 winner, Dryden McKay (Minnesota State University) for an outstanding collegiate career along with this year's legend of College Hockey, Gino Gasparini (University of North Dakota) for his tremendous contributions to college hockey. Character Builds Excellence is truly shown with both award recipients. We want to thank you for attending this event that celebrates the excellence in college hockey.

In January of this year, Chuck Bard, the founder of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award passed away at the early age of 96. Chuck's inspiration, vision and guidance is what created this award and continues today as we try to live up to his standards. Chuck will be missed by all who he touched over the years. We also lost Jack Almquist and Bob (Coach) Peters. Both had been a part of Hobey for many decades.

This year's announcement was held in Boston as part of the Frozen Four Weekend. It felt great to be back doing a live announcement in front of a live audience. The event was held at the Encore Boston Harbor Resort on Friday, April 8, 2022. Our broadcast was aired live on the NHL Network as well as on the hobeybaker.com website. We want to congratulate our Hat Trick Finalists, Bobby Brink (University of Denver) and Ben Meyers (University of Minnesota) for having excellent collegiate careers.

Congratulations to Cale Makar on his great season with the Colorado Avalanche. Cale becomes the only player ever to win the Hobey Baker Award, Calder Trophy (NHL Rookie of the Year), Norris Trophy, Conn Smythe and Stanley Cup.

A special thank you to our major sponsors: BNY Mellon, Columbia Threadneedle, John Hancock Investments, and National Hockey League, along with our Past Award Recipients, Hobey Baker Foundation and Committee members and our other supporters, for their continued financial support. A special thanks to the Minnesota Wild and Minnesota Wild Foundation for their continued support, under the leadership of Matt Majka. Thank you to Bethany Boelter of Jostens and James Kolar of PriceWaterhouseCoopers for their continued support of our award. A special thanks to James Kolar for all his years of working with us and wishing you a great retirement.

The High School Character Award has had another great year as we continue to expand its outreach. Thank you to our sponsors and the Minnesota Wild for their financial support in driving the ideal that "Character Builds Excellence" to the high school level.

I also want to thank our Chairman, Joe Santarelli and Vice Chairman, Joey Reilly for their contributions this season. The direction and passion of these individuals along with the voluntary committee members have made this year's award, golf tournament and banquet tremendously successful.

Thank you again for joining us with today's events celebrating the finest of College Hockey.

Message from the Committee Chairman

Joe Santarelli

Welcome to the 2022 Hobey Baker Memorial Award Banquet at the Royal Golf Club in Lake Elmo, MN. Today we acknowledge and honor the 42nd recipient of the Hobey Baker Award, Minnesota State Maverick goaltender, #29, Dryden McKay, and Legend of College Hockey Coach Gino Gasparini.

Dryden McKay, the hockey player, the teammate, son and brother, are what a great hockey player looks like in mind, body and spirit.

Dryden's collegiate successes are widely acknowledged with his rookie season by earning him WCHA All-Rookie team honors, a spot on the WCHA Second Team and College Hockey News Rookie of the Year.

During his sophomore year his accolades included breaking the Minnesota State career shutout record, he led the nation in goals against with a 1.31 goals against average, a save percentage of .942 and was selected as a finalist for the Hobey Baker Award.

The playing career of Dryden McKay is a true representation of what a hockey player is. He demonstrated strength of character, humility, and gratitude for all his family has done to fuel his heart's passion to pursue excellence in becoming a great hockey player. Those who have been in his company will acknowledge he is even a greater person.

Dryden's accomplishments are very well documented. Dryden, as a player and teammate, reflects and represents the values, principles and ideals of the Hobey Baker selection process.

Every year the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Committee selects and honors a Legend of College Hockey. This year's recipient is Coach Gino Gasparini from the University of North Dakota. Coach Gasparini started coaching in 1978. He compiled 392 wins, the most in North Dakota men's hockey history. He ranks sixth all time in wins in the WCHA.

I'd like to thank the members of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Committee for their tireless efforts to make the 42nd award selection possible. It was no easy task

Legend of College Hockey Gino Gasparini

Former Head Coach at the University of North Dakota

The Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation announced on February 16, its 2022 Legend of College Hockey recipient as Gino Gasparini from the University of North Dakota. Gasparini, who coached at his alma mater from 1978-1994, led North Dakota to three national championships in the 1980s (1980, 1982, 1987) along with a runner-up finish in 1979 and a third-place finish in 1984. In WCHA play, Gasparini's Fighting Sioux squads captured four regular-season titles and four postseason crowns during the decade. The Fort Frances, Ont., native compiled a 16-season record of 392-248-24 (.608) with North Dakota, including a 277-197-21 (.581) mark in the WCHA. His 392 career wins are the most in North Dakota's storied history and stand as the sixth-most in WCHA history.

Gasparini was named the WCHA Coach of the Year three times (1979, 1982, 1987) and received the American Hockey Coaches Association's Spencer Penrose Award in 1987. In 1999, the AHCA honored him with the John MacInnes Award. He was inducted into the UND Athletic Hall of Fame in 1987 and the Northwestern Ontario Sports Hall of Fame in 2014.

As a player, Gasparini was a four-year letterman with the Fighting Sioux from 1964-68, serving as the team captain as a senior. Gasparini returned to his alma mater in 1969 as an assistant coach under Rube Bjorkman from 1969-78, before taking the reins as the program's head coach for the 1978-79 season.

His pupils included Hobey Baker winner Tony Hrkac (1987) when he set a still standing NCAA record for most points in a season with 116. Gasparini coached 17 All-Americans — among them James Patrick, Jon Casey, Scott Sandelin, Ed Belfour and Greg Johnson. Thirty-five of his former players went on to play in the NHL. Future NCAA and NHL head coaches who played under Gasparini include North Dakota's Brad Berry, Minnesota Duluth's Scott Sandelin, Edmonton's former head coach Dave Tippett, and former North Dakota and current Seattle Kraken head coach Dave Hakstol.

From October 1985 to June 1990, Gasparini served the University of North Dakota as its Director of Athletics. Following his head coaching days, Gino served as the commissioner of the United States Hockey League from 1994-2003 and the USHL president from 2003-09, helping to strengthen the junior hockey leagues' status as the primary source for developing Division I college hockey players.

2022 Hobey Baker Award Announcement

After two years of Covid influenced lockdowns, event cancellations and an American society that was significantly altered, some normalcy returned to the sports industry. College hockey ramped back up for the 2021-22 season but was hindered by sporadic Covid outbreaks that forced some game postponements or cancellations, as well as some players having to miss games. But college hockey survived and was rewarded with sellout crowds at the national championship Frozen Four tournament held in Boston's TD Garden. The University of Denver won their ninth national title defeating Minnesota State 5-1 in the final.

After two idle years of a formal national awards ceremony, the Hobey Baker Award committee renewed the live event and held it at Boston's luxurious Encore Boston Harbor Resort. Once again, a live broadcast was carried on NHL Network and streamed live on Hobeybaker.com and hosted by Jamison Coyle.

The awards ceremonies commenced at 4:45 with the presentation of the Derek Hines Award given annually to college hockey's unsung hero. This year's recipient was Jordan Seyfert from Merrimack College. The program continued with the announcement of the Mike Richter Award given annually to college hockey's top goalie: Northeastern University's Devon Levi. Next up was the Hockey Humanitarian Award, presented annually to a college hockey player who gave back to the community with selfless volunteerism efforts. This year's winner was Josh Kosack from Union College who conducted his "Kozi's Kids" fundraiser to help raise money for Christmas presents for local kids. The American Hockey Coaches Association presented their annual East and West All-American teams along with the national rookie of the year winner, Devon Levi, again of Northeastern University.

Next up was the Hobey Baker Award carried live on TV and webcast. Coyle announced a short video on this year's Legend of College Hockey Gino Gasparini from the University of North Dakota. The three Hobey hat trick finalists were then introduced: Bobby Brink from the University of Denver, Dryden McKay from Minnesota State University and Ben Meyers from the University of Minnesota. 2022 Hobey Baker committee chairman, Joe Santarelli opened the envelope and introduced Dryden McKay as the 42nd annual recipient of the Hobey. McKay became just the third goalie to win college hockey's top individual prize and the first from Minnesota State. Upon completing his senior season, McKay signed a two-year contract with the Toronto Marlies of the AHL.

DRYDEN MCKAY

On Friday, April 8, Dryden McKay accepted the Award from Hobeley Baker Chairman Joe Santarelli. The announcement took place before a large crowd in Encore Boston Harbor Resort in Boston during the 2022 NCAA Frozen Four. The NHL Network provided live TV coverage to a national audience.

2022 Hobey Baker Memorial Award Recipient

Dryden McKay

It's all seemed predetermined, right?

The son of a former college and National Hockey League goaltender who served as his coach growing up. Named after a Hall of Fame legend who not only also played college hockey, but won six Stanley Cups, five Vezinas as the top goaltender in the NHL, a Calder and a Conn Smythe trophy in eight years with the Montreal Canadiens.

Dryden McKay's father, Ross, worked his way up through the Canadian junior hockey ranks and played at the University of Saskatchewan and the professional minor leagues before a cup of coffee with the Hartford Whalers in 1990-91.

"He played a major role in getting me involved in hockey," said Dryden. "I was introduced and surrounded by hockey from the minute I was born. I spent countless hours at the rink with my dad growing up. It is definitely an advantage to have someone that played at the highest level of hockey in my corner anytime I need advice or have questions. I would not be who I am or where I am if it weren't for both of my parents. My dad introduced me to hockey and taught me how to play goalie and there has been no looking back."

However, the path to the 2022 Hobey Baker Award for the Downers Grove, Ill., native was anything but a straight line.

McKay played for the Chicago Mission and Chicago Young Americans youth travelling programs before beginning his junior career with the Springfield Junior Blues of the North American Hockey League. Another year of seasoning in the NAHL with Corpus Christi where he was named team Most Valuable Player predated two seasons in the United States Hockey League with Madison.

Those two years with the Capitols proved crucial to his development. McKay played a lot (88 games in two seasons) and saw a ton of rubber (2,649 saves in two seasons), while establishing franchise records for single-season save percentage (.917 in 2016-17) and single-season goals against average (2.70 in 2017-18).

Thrust into a starting role at Minnesota State in his freshman year in 2018-19, McKay thrived with a workload that saw him craft a 24-7-2 record with a 1.76 goals against average and a .927 save percentage in 34 games played. At the conclusion of the season he was named All-WCHA in addition to being named to the WCHA All-Rookie Team, and was selected College Hockey News Rookie of the year. The Mavericks success, which included WCHA regular-season and postseason tournament championships echoed those of its goaltender.

"I knew I was very lucky my freshman year to be in a situation without a returning goalie," said McKay, who wears

#29 in tribute to Ken Dryden, who led Cornell to the NCAA championship in 1967. "I was very excited about the opportunity and the team welcomed me with open arms. Coach Hastings and the staff believed in me, but made it clear I would have to earn everything. I knew that if I played up to my potential in the preseason, there was a chance I could get ice time right away. It wasn't easy, but I eventually got comfortable in the college game."

In his sophomore season McKay helped lead the Mavericks to the league regular-season title while earning First Team All-America accolades.

Named a Second Team All-America as a junior in 2020-21, McKay backstopped MSU to league and postseason tournament championships and a NCAA West Region championship in Loveland, Colo. The trip to the Frozen for the Mavericks was the first in program history.

His senior season proved to be one for the ages with McKay establishing a NCAA single-season record for wins (he finished 2021-22 with a 38-5-0 record) and a NCAA career record for shutouts with 34. His 113 career wins ranks second all-time in the NCAA.

The Mavericks ran away with the Central Collegiate Hockey Association regular-season title, dominating the league with a 23-3-0 mark, and then a run to the Ron Mason Trophy as postseason tournament champs. McKay was named NCAA regional MVP after the Mavericks forged wins over Harvard and Notre Dame en route to a second consecutive trip to the Frozen Four. A win over Minnesota in the national semifinals came before a 5-1 loss to Denver in a first-ever appearance in the national championship game.

Named a First Team All-American, the CCHA Player of the Year and the CCHA Goaltender of the Year, McKay's senior year culminated with being named the 2022 Hobey Baker Award recipient as the top men's college hockey player in the nation. In doing so he became only the third netminder to win the award, joining Michigan State's Ryan Miller (2001) and Minnesota's Robb Stauber (1988).

"It is such an incredible honor," said McKay, a CoSIDA Academic All-American who graduated from Minnesota State with a degree in business. "It is very humbling to see the names of players that have won it before me. The legacy of Hobey Baker is about excellence and I am still in disbelief that I was chosen as this year's recipient. We had such a great team this year and the coolest part for me has been sharing this experience with my teammates, friends, and family."

2022 HOBEY HAT TRICK FINALISTS

UNIVERSITY OF DENVER

Junior – Forward

Minnetonka, Minnesota

Known as a dangerous offensive threat anytime he's on the ice, Brink helped guide the Pioneers to their ninth national championship and first since 2017. In the process, he was the nation's leader in points, assists and points per game, averaging 1.39 per game. Gifted with creative skills and an elite hockey sense, Brink had a breakout season winning the NCHC scoring title. Additional accolades from the conference included Player and Forward of the Year honors and First Team all-conference. A player who was used in all situations, Brink helped the Pioneers to a first-place tie in the NCHC regular season, before suffering a semi-final loss to Minnesota Duluth in the NCHC playoff tournament. Brink completed his season with 14 goals and 43 assists for 57 points in 41 games, including 16 multiple point games, and points in 28 of his last 33 games. A Philadelphia Flyers second round draft pick in 2019, Brink signed a pro contract with the Flyers following the season. On the international stage, Bobby helped Team USA to a gold medal in the 2021 World Junior Championships. Brink is a Business Administration major with a 3.56 GPA and is a three-time NCHC Distinguished Scholar-Athlete.

BEN MEYERS

UNIVERSITY OF MINNESOTA

Junior – Forward

Delano, Minnesota

Meyers trademark style of play as a responsible, competitive 200-foot player elevated him into the national spotlight. He co-captained the Golden Gophers to the Big Ten regular season title while finishing second in conference scoring. The conference rewarded him as its Player of the Year and First Team all-conference. Additionally, Meyers played for Team USA at the recent Beijing Olympics finishing second in team scoring with 4 points in 4 games. Upon his return to campus, Meyers produced six goals and nine assists for 15 points in just seven games, including an overtime goal and three assists at the Worcester Regional, won by the Gophers. Suffering a loss to Minnesota State in the national semi-final, Meyers finished with 17 goals and 24 assists for 41 points in 34 games, averaging 1.20 points per game (8th in the nation). Meyers scored five game winning goals and produced 13 multiple point games, including six in his last eight games. An Entrepreneurial Management major with a 3.54 GPA, he is a two-time All-Academic student-athlete. A pro hockey free agent, Meyers signed an entry level contract with the Stanley Cup champion Colorado Avalanche following his college hockey season.

Character Builds Excellence

ADDITIONAL TOP TEN FINALISTS

Character Builds Excellence

MATTY BENIERS

UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN

Sophomore – Forward – Hingham, Massachusetts

When he arrived in Ann Arbor as a highly touted freshman, he scored two goals in his first college hockey game and didn't stop. Gifted offensively with a sniper-like shot, Beniers followed that inaugural season with a 43-point performance and laid claim to the Big Ten scoring title, First Team all-conference honors and was a finalist for Player of the Year. • Finished the season with 20 goals, 23 assists for 43 points in 37 games – had 15 multiple point games • First draft pick in history by Seattle Kraken (1st round, 2nd overall in 2021) and signed a pro contract following the season • Played for Team USA at Beijing Olympics – his 10 power play goals was 4th in nation

MICHIGAN TECH UNIVERSITY

Senior – Forward – Delano, Minnesota

Known as a power forward with a shoot first mentality, Halonen made history by becoming the first player to lead the newly formed CCHA conference in points (36) and goals (16) in conference play, earning him First Team all-conference recognition. His 132 shots on goal ranked thirteenth in the nation while his 18 even strength goals was second most in the country. Following the season, Halonen signed an entry level contract with the New Jersey Devils. • Finished the season with 21 goals, 23 assists for 44 points in 37 games – had 11-game point streak • Mechanical Engineering major – two-time All-Academic – has 10 siblings • Was a high school teammate with fellow Hobey top ten finalist Ben Meyers

LUKE HUGHES

Freshman, Defense, Canton, Michigan

It was an incredible year for the first-year defenseman, beginning with Hughes becoming the third brother of his family to be a first-round NHL draft pick. He followed that up as the highest scoring defenseman in the nation, collecting 39 points in 41 games. The Big Ten honored him as co-Freshman of the Year, All Rookie Team and Second Team Big Ten. • Finished the season with 17 goals, 22 assists for 39 points in 41 games – was the highest scoring defenseman in the nation in points and goals • New Jersey draft (1st round, 4th overall, 2021) – brother Quinn (1st overall, Vancouver, 2019, Univ. of Michigan); brother Jack (7th overall, New Jersey, 2018, USNTDP) • Skated for Team USA in 2022 World Junior Championships

NORTHEASTERN UNIVERSITY

Sophomore – Goalie – Dollard-des-Ormeaux, Quebec

Not many goalies can make this claim: Levi began his college career with two shutouts in his first two starts. After being sidelined all season as a freshman due to injury, his debut was just the beginning of a fabulous season. The Huskies went on to claim their first ever Hockey East regular season title as Levi hauled in a truckload of awards including: Goalie of the Year, Rookie of the Year, First Team Hockey East, All Rookie Team and was a finalist for Player of the Year. • Final record was: 21-10-1 – goals against average 1.54 (3rd in nation) – saves percentage .952 (1st in nation) – recorded 10 shutouts (tied-2nd in nation) – Computer Science major • Allowed 2 or less goals in 25 of 32 games played; had streak of 14 games of 2 or less • Florida draft (7th round, 2020), rights traded to Buffalo – made Canada Olympic roster

QUINNIPIAC UNIVERSITY

Sophomore – Goalie – Dollard-des-Ormeaux, Quebec

Producing the best statistical goaltending record in the storied history of the ECAC, Perets established league records for goals against average, saves percentage and shutouts. He had an amazing 0.89 goals against average helping the Bobcats to the regular season crown. Plenty of awards followed as ECAC Player of the Year, Goalie of the Year and First Team all-conference. • Final record was: 22-5-2 – goals against average 1.17 (1st in nation) – saves percentage .939 (2nd in nation) – had 11 shutouts (1st in nation) • Set ECAC conference record going 369 consecutive minutes without allowing a goal • Business major with 4.0 GPA – allowed 2 or less goals in 26 of 31 starts including a stretch of 19 games in a row

MINNESOTA STATE UNIVERSITY

Junior, Forward, Hudson, Florida

A skilled, elite playmaking forward, Smith finished second in the nation in scoring with 50 points and was fifth in points per game averaging 1.32. Smith picked up points in 30 of 37 games this season and had scoring streaks of 10 and 11 games. A First Team all-CCHA selection and league Forward of the Year, he played for Team USA at the recent Beijing Olympics. • Finished the season with 19 goals, 31 assists for 50 points in 37 games – had 14 multiple point games – was 57% on faceoffs • Was tied for 3rd in the nation with 31 assists – Management major • Winnipeg draft (3rd round, 2018) – signed a pro contract with Arizona Coyotes following the season – named to 2021 Frozen Four All-Tournament Team

BOBBY TRIVIGNO

UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS

Senior, Forward, Setauket, New York

Trivigno's tenacious and dynamic play allowed him ice time in all situations. After helping UMass to its first ever national title last year, he followed that up with 49 points in 37 games to rank tied for third in the nation in scoring and tied for eighth in assists. Having won the Hockey East scoring title, he was named the circuit's Player of the Year and First Team all-conference. • Finished the season with 20 goals, 29 assists for 49 points in 37 games – had 14 multiple point games – signed an entry level contract with the New York Rangers • Team captain and was named Most Outstanding Player at 2021 Frozen Four • Sport Management major – participates in numerous off-ice and community projects

Hobey Baker Award Trophy

As a symbol of excellence, it had to be outstanding, and the Hobey Baker Memorial Award trophy turned out to be just that. The trophy itself represents art and athletics at their best.

Forty pounds of bronze and clear, etched acrylic, 16 inches high, detailed down to a stitched jersey and lettered stick, the trophy is classic sculpture.

The figure was sculpted by internationally renowned Bill Mack of Bloomington, Minn., whose unique style of relief sculptor is collected worldwide. He has produced sculptors of many Hall of Fame athletes including Kareem Abdul-Jabbar, Arthur Ashe, Peggy Fleming, Lyle Alzado and recently the Harmon Killebrew statue at Target Field in Minneapolis.

In creating the Hobey Baker Award, his painstaking process began with the search for a model. That model turned out to be Steve Christoff, who starred at Richfield (Minn.) High School, the University of Minnesota, with the 1980 U.S. Olympic hockey team and in the National Hockey League.

Fifty different skating poses were photographed and analyzed. Practical and artistic considerations were taken into account. The award had to be sturdy. A skater stopping quickly, sending ice shavings flying, his stick and skates forming a three-point base, was selected.

This pose, photographed from a variety of angles, was broken down in painstaking detail. A charcoal drawing of the nascent trophy was unveiled at the East-West All Star Hockey Game luncheon on April 1, 1980 at the St. Paul Civic Center, where the Decathlon Club publicly announced its award intentions.

Mack turned the drawings into a stick figure, soon covered by clay, then plaster baked in the Decathlon ovens. Finally out came the finished product — the statuary bronze trophy — college hockey's symbol of individual excellence.

The original trophy was unveiled at the first award banquet April 1, 1981 at the Decathlon. The original casting is on display in the Xcel Energy Center, St. Paul, Minn. Each winner has also been presented a trophy, as have the schools they represented.

Hobey Balloting

Each head hockey coach at accredited NCAA Division I schools receives one ballot. Coaches are asked to pick the top three players in their league and the top three players in the nation. These are two separate rankings of three players each — a player may be listed in both rankings and a coach may vote for his own player.

College hockey fans can nominate their favorite players as well through on-line balloting (www.hobeybaker.com) that counts as 1% of the total vote. Ballots from the coaches and fans are tabulated by the accounting firm PricewaterhouseCoopers, and the top 10 candidates are named.

The Hobey Baker Memorial Award Selection Committee and online voters will then select the Hobey Hat Trick (top three finalists) and the winner. The Selection Committee members are a geographically-balanced group of 30 individuals representing print and electronic media, college hockey coaches and officials, and NHL scouts. Their terms are three years, except for officials who serve five years and members may be reappointed.

Award Criteria

- 1) Candidates must exhibit strength of character both on and off the ice.
- 2) Candidates must contribute to the integrity of the team and display outstanding skills in all phases of the game.
- 3) Consideration should be given to scholastic achievement and sportsmanship.
- 4) Candidates must comply with all NCAA rules: be full time students in an accredited NCAA college or university; and complete 50 percent or more of the season.

Hobey Baker Memorial Award Committee

The Hobey Baker Committee is comprised of volunteers and administered by a Chairperson who oversees the committee and its activities.

Several sub-committees have been established to handle the specifics of the award, including publicity, tickets, policies, procedures, advertising, website and social media.

Hobey Baker Foundation

In 1991, the senior members of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Committee (“Committee”) determined that a Foundation should be formed to ensure the continued protection and growth of this prestigious award. The direction was taken, the research was performed and the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation (“Foundation”) was legally established. In 1992, the Foundation became a reality and is formally governed by a Board of Directors.

Today, the Committee reports directly to the Foundation. Membership in the Foundation is open to current and past Chairmen of the Committee, Past Hobey Baker Memorial Award Winners, Past Hobey Baker Memorial Award Legends of Hockey, and others as determined by the Foundation’s Board of Directors.

The Foundation possesses ownership over all rights to the Hobey Baker Memorial Award and related properties. The Foundation has the ultimate responsibility to maintain the quality and integrity of the Annual Award and Banquet, as well as, the Hobey Baker Brand. The Foundation’s primary charge is to ensure the long-term stewardship, success and expansion of the Hobey Baker Brand.

To accomplish these goals, the Foundation undertakes the following major actions:

1. Develop strategic vision for the annual award and new events
2. Develop and maintain partnerships with entities whose interests and goals are aligned with Hobey Baker’s
3. Negotiate contracts to carry out the mission and approved activities of Hobey Baker

The Hobey Baker Foundation’s efforts to create more exposure for our award include the continued expansion of the Hobey Baker High School Character Award program. This program was started in 2004 with the mission to promote character and sportsmanship at the high school level by recognizing boy and girl hockey players that exemplify those traits. Each head coach selects the recipient from their team that most exemplifies the character and sportsmanship of Hobey Baker himself. This year The Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation honored about 950 recipients in 20 states. Next year we are targeting all 46 states with high school hockey and 2400 teams. At an average of 17 players per team that means 40,000+ players.

The Foundation also introduced The Hobey Baker Society. This group consists of individuals dedicated to financially supporting the activities of Hobey Baker.

It should be noted that the Hobey Baker Foundation is indebted to all the volunteers that make up the Foundation and Committee. Not only is their contribution in the numerous hours given to making the Award a success, but their contributions are also financial. This year we were just shy of 100% participation in the financial support of the Foundation.

The Foundation is a non-profit organization; therefore donations to the Foundation are tax deductible, as is a portion of the cost of your ticket to tonight’s Banquet.

A LOOK BACK AT LAST YEAR

Hobey Baker Chairmen

Back in 1980 Chuck Bard was CEO and General Manager of the Decathlon Club in Bloomington, Minn., and came up with the idea to honor the top men’s collegiate hockey player in the U.S. His concept came to fruition with the creation of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award. A committee was formed to oversee the operations of the award and each year is guided by a new Committee Chairman. These pillars of strength guide the award project through all phases of the operation including budgeting, public relations, marketing, banquet and selection process. Countless hours are spent in a volunteer role to make the annual event the best it can be. We salute these past Committee Chairs for their dedication in creating and preserving the outstanding qualities the Hobey Baker Award represents.

Legends of College Hockey

Each year, the Hobey Baker Award Committee also honors one of the all-time great contributors to the game of college hockey. Without question, this outstanding group of individuals have each left their own valuable trademark on the collegiate game. They have led the way in all aspects of the game from playing to coaching and even creating the rules. It is through the great efforts of these people that hockey fans everywhere can enjoy today’s exciting college hockey.

The Hobey Baker Story

*H*obey Baker had all the attributes of a fabulous athlete: a great physique, fantastic reflexes, instant coordination of hand and eye, iron discipline, blazing courage. But he was different. Hobey Baker was the college athlete supreme: The gentleman sportsman, the amateur in the pure sense, playing the game for the sport, who never fouled, despised publicity and refused professional offers. To this day, he is offered as a striking example of the finest that America has produced.

Hobart Amory Hare Baker was born to an aristocratic Philadelphia family January 15, 1892. At age eleven, he was enrolled at St. Paul's School, the famous preparatory school in Concord, New Hampshire, especially favored by the first families of Philadelphia for the training of their sons. Although remembered as industrious rather than brilliant, Hobey was always in the first third of his class and proved diligent and conscientious.

St. Paul's pride was its ice hockey team. The school had introduced the sport to America only eight years before Hobey's arrival. Its teams were outstanding and fared well against college and semi-professional clubs. Hobey Baker made the squad at age fourteen and was soon its hero.

This was the age of seven-man hockey—no forward passing or substitutions allowed. Ironically, these seeming restrictions best showcased Hobey's speed, stickhandling and endurance. Also, with someone like Hobey on the squad, the coach was free to experiment with strategies and maneuvers. For example, he aligned the two defensemen side by side rather than the classical tandem positions of point and cover-point. Offensively, the standard rush line of four abreast, two wings and two forwards, was altered so the left forward remained on the center line from cage to cage and allowed the right forward (Hobey) to roam all over the ice. These tactics, with the two forward positions renamed center and rover, were immediately adopted by the hockey world.

From St. Paul, ice hockey spread to other prep schools, and upon graduation, players took the game to the college level. And with it, the fame of Hobey Baker.

While at Princeton, he was not only a legend in hockey, but in football as well. He captained the hockey team for two years and the football team for one. As a punt returner, his coordination and footwork allowed him to take chances and do things others wouldn't dare.

Page after page was written about him in the newspapers; fans would line up for hours in advance to purchase tickets.

Crowds in evening dress would arrive by carriage or limousines when the marquee read "Hobey Baker Plays Tonight." Yet Hobey remained unaffected. Shouts of "Here he comes!" would greet his arrival onto the ice and continue throughout the games whenever he touched the puck. He was simply a pleasure to watch.

In his era, Hobey Baker was universally recognized as the best amateur hockey player in the United States. At a time when low scoring games were the rule, Hobey set new standards, averaging more than four goals per game. He was penalized only twice in his college career. His speed and skills dazzled the audiences and the press. The Boston Journal enthused, he "is without a doubt the greatest amateur hockey player ever developed in this country or Canada. No player has been able to weave in and out of a defense, change his pace and direction, with the uncanny skill and generalship of Baker. He is the wonder player of hockey." At a dinner following his senior year, he was crowned with the laurel "King of Hockey." In spite of all the well-deserved praise heaped upon him, he was totally unspoiled by it and he was modest almost to a fault.

After his college years at Princeton Hobey tried his hand in the real world of Wall Street insurance and banking, then the family upholstery business. But he was bored. What sustained him was playing for St. Nick's, an amateur team in Manhattan. His teammates were ex-Harvard, Yale and Princeton players and a few Canadians working in the city. However, the rest of the league made no pretense of being anything but "semi-pros."

In spite of the usual opponent tactic of "get Baker," Hobey continued his college tradition of making his way to the offender's locker room to shake hands after each contest. Baker's aversion to fouling was not because he was stoic or passive, he simply despised dirty play.

Hobey's skills and daring did not diminish, and he continued his reign as king of amateur hockey. The press still found him refreshing and remarkable. Following a game with the Stars, the Montreal Press commented, "Uncle Sam has had the cheek to develop a first-class hockey player. We had always smiled a cynical grin at the thought. A few minutes of Baker on the ice convinced the most skeptical. The blond haired boy was a favorite with the crowd."

The winter of 1916 Hobey's mind was on a very different sort of competition. Believing American involvement in the World War was close at hand, he took up flying. In 1917 Hobey was commissioned a lieutenant in the Army. As a member of the famous Lafayette Escadrille, he was with the first group of American pilots sent to France. He was as adventurous a pilot as he had been an athlete, chosen on occasion to exhibit aerial acrobatics with his friend Eddie Rickenbacker. In combat flying, he found even more danger and excitement than he had in contact sports - and Hobey needed both. He was officially credited with bringing down three enemy planes and was decorated with the Croix de Guerre for "exceptional valor under fire."

Following the armistice, his orders home in hand, Hobey announced to his fellow officers he was going to take "one last flight in the old Spad." His mates were quick to argue with the young captain who was challenging the oldest tradition of the air service—never take a "last" flight lest it be just that. But they were not able to dissuade him and were even more upset when the plane he insisted on flying was a borrowed one, just out of the repair shop.

Tradition was not to be denied the final victory that gray, dismal day over Toul, France. Just a quarter mile out, the engine quit and the plane crashed. Hobey Baker, age 26, died in the ambulance a short time later.

In 1919 he received a posthumous Army citation from General Pershing for distinguished service and exceptional gallantry.

With his death in France, the old-fashioned virtues Hobey Baker personified took on legendary qualities. He was one of the first Americans selected to the Hockey Hall of Fame, in 1945. In 1973, the United States Hockey Hall of Fame in Eveleth, Minnesota included Hobey Baker as a charter member.

The Sports Bay and Chapel in the Cathedral of St. John the Divine in New York City was dedicated in 1951. Hobart Baker was one of four men whose name was cut in the walls of the chapel to serve as a constant expression and reminder to all future generations of the highest ideals of character and sportsmanship.

No finer example of the true sportsman may have ever been developed in American athletics. Whatever game he played he always played it first of all for the joy of the sport.

HOBEBY BAKER MEMORIAL AWARD

40

The Hobey Baker Memorial Award has been presented to the U.S. college hockey player best displaying the virtues Hobey Baker embodied during his lifetime. Past winners of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award include five members of the U.S. Hockey Hall of Fame, five Stanley Cup champions, two Olympic gold medalists, and an inductee to the Hockey Hall of Fame in Toronto.

In Hobey Baker Memorial Award: The First 40, Brian W. Shaughnessy chronicles the careers of the forty winners of American college hockey's most prestigious honor.

Hobey Baker Exhibit on Display at the Xcel

Roger Godin, Minnesota Wild Curator, maintains the official Hobey Baker Foundation exhibit at Gate Four in the Xcel Energy Center in St. Paul. The exhibit honors the current recipient with his jersey and head/shoulder portrait. Also on display are jerseys and head/shoulder portraits of five past winners while the remaining honorees are represented with their head/shoulder portraits. Elsewhere in the exhibit is the trophy itself accompanied by Hobey Baker's biography, as well as presentations on the Legends of College Hockey and Foundation committee members. Plan on paying a visit on your next trek to the X.

to navigate back through our country's COVID-19 situation to allow the full and complete selection process and support for a live broadcast. Their efforts clearly demonstrated the committee's commitment to the foundation the award was based on some 42 years ago.

The Hobey Baker High School Character Award allows for coaches to highlight the importance of character in the growth of a hockey player.

To all the players who received the 2022 Hobey Baker High School Character Award, please accept my sincere congratulations. To the coaches who took advantage of the opportunity to select and present it to one of your players, you have my profound respect and gratitude.

Finally, I would like to thank all of those who provided financial support to the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation, and a special thanks to our Foundation president Wally Olson. Our sponsors are documented throughout this program. A sincere thanks to the Encore Boston Harbor Hotel and Resort, which hosted the Friday Night at the Frozen Four Announcement. They provided a spectacular venue, paying a great deal of respect to the award and the announcement proceedings.

Last, and certainly not least, my sincere thanks to Jim Nichols and John Russo for extending the invitation to me to join the Hobey Baker Memorial Awards Committee. Both provided counsel and advice during my time as Committee Chairman, which is appreciated beyond words.

On behalf of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Committee and Foundation, along with the past winners joining us today, thank you for being here to celebrate Dryden McKay and Gino Gasparini, along with their families.

History of the Hobey Baker Award

Named for the outstanding collegiate hockey player in the U.S.A.

By Charles R. Bard,
CEO, Decathlon Athletic Club

In February of 1978, I attended the Club Managers Convention in Los Angeles at the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Following the convention I was asked by Duke Llewellyn, Athletic Director of the LAAC and the Administrator of the Wooden Award, to stay over a couple of nights and attend the US Open at the Riviera Country Club.

That Sunday evening following the Open, Duke asked me to dine with him at the LAAC. Following dinner, Duke gave me a tour of the facility and in the process revealed their plans for the Wooden Award created to honor the outstanding collegiate basketball player of the year. He related their beginning, how the trophy was designed, their early successes and failures. He discussed how they patterned the Award after the Heisman Award, and I immediately suggested that the Decathlon Club could do the same thing for hockey. Duke agreed and said what better place than Minnesota. We discussed their financial difficulties, their expenses, and their revenues. Their banquet was held at the Club where space was limited.

After returning I began looking into the feasibility of starting a similar award for hockey at the DAC. At that time we were going through our first major expansion program at the DAC and every program had to be self-sustaining. In the following months I gathered financial material for the Heisman Award from Rudy Riska, Athletic Director of the New York

Downtown Athletic Club, and further financial information on the Wooden Award. Since the Heisman originated in the 1920s, it was difficult to compare with their years of experience and major sponsors. Their 1978 banquet was held at a hotel in town, which seated 1200 people at $125 a plate. Their big expense, which would not be a problem for us, was the expense of bringing in past winners. They actually had a two-tiered head table with all the past winners on the first tier.

I continued to research the two awards and attended two of the Heisman Award banquets as the guest of Director Riska. I attended both VIP receptions and began to formulate my plan for a similar award for hockey.

In the fall of 1979, following a very successful sports banquet at the DAC, Wally McCarthy suggested we should have a second sporting event each year. With the hockey award in mind I felt it was now time to discuss the concept. I asked Russ Chance, Chairman of the Entertainment Committee, to meet with me. When I expressed my interest in a collegiate hockey award, Russ agreed. We discussed the financial arrangements necessary, and I told Russ that I would pursue sponsors to make the award self-sustaining if he would chair the first event, and he agreed to do so. He also agreed to bring it to the Board of Directors for their approval.

Over the next several months I pursued potential sponsors and succeeded in getting commitments from Ralph Greig of Pepsi Bottling Company and Joe Lapinsky, President of Northwest Airlines, for some form of financial backing. I also lined up Jim Thaxton, President of Sports Films & Talent, to do the filming of the potential finalists.

Character Builds Excellence

I then began to establish an organizational committee of club members who were interested in sports and the concept of a collegiate hockey award. The first members of the committee were Walter Bush, Jim Thaxton, Russ Chance, Pinky McNamara, George Konik, Murray Williamson, Grady Alderman, Ralph Greig, and Ron Fletcher.

I asked John Justice, Athletic Director of the DAC, to draw up a format for the award. John went to work on a plan to establish the criteria as to who would do the voting to select the candidates, how to arrive at a top ten, and finally, the winner. At this point I felt we needed someone to actually be in charge of the award itself, and I appointed Patty Riha, editor of the DAC Discus magazine, to be the award coordinator. The three of us put our final touch on the format and then presented it to the Organizational Committee for final approval. By this time our Committee had grown in size as we felt the need for more help on the various committees within the Organizational Committee. We broke the Committee's assignments as follows, calling it the Planning Committee.

Next came the choice for a name for the award. I asked Walter Bush how I could get a list of the Hockey Hall of Fame members. Walter said he would send me a list of the names in the Canadian Hockey Hall of Fame and suggested I contact Roger Godin who was then in charge of the U. S. Hockey Hall of Fame. Roger sent me his list and I began to study the biographies of the names in the two Halls of Fame. After reviewing all of the inductees, I settled on four names that impressed me the most. They were Frankie Brimsek, Moose Goheen, John Mariucci, and of course Hobey Baker. Even though I had come up with the four final names for the Committee's review, I had already made up my mind. I was so enamored with Hobey that I secured all of the information on him that I could, even contacting W.C. Stryker, the Director of Athletic Relations at Princeton University, where Hobey attended and performed.

When I attended the next Committee meeting I brought the four names for consideration, but only brought the bio on Hobey. It was a tough decision for a few because the other three candidates were all from Minnesota. In fact, John Mariucci was my neighbor in Bloomington. My input prevailed however, and the Committee voted unanimously for Hobart Amory Baker.

I contacted Bill Stryker at Princeton and learned there were relatives of Hobey's in New York, Princeton, and believe it or not, two in St. Paul, Minnesota. There were two nephews in New York that were the sons of Hobey's brother, Thornton. One was Alfred Baker, a senior editor at Time Magazine, and the other was Hobey Baker, Creative Director at General Mills. One cousin, Lewis Baker Cuyler lived in Princeton and the two cousins living in St. Paul were Mrs. Benjamin Griggs and Mrs. Charles Ames.

I traveled to New York and Princeton to meet those relatives and secure their permission for the use of Hobey's name. Nephew Hobey had in his possession an elaborate scrapbook that Hobey's mother had compiled. He graciously allowed me to bring the scrapbook back to Minnesota with me. Jim Thaxton's Sports Film & Talent Company duplicated the entire scrapbook which allowed us to have all the pictures, stories, and headlines we now have in our possession.

While in New York I also contacted a number of media people to get their input and support for the award. I met personally with Mulvoy, hockey editor for Sports Illustrated at that time, and with Judy Weiss in the New York office of Hockey News. On the phone I talked with Tom Murray and Charlie Halpin of Hockey News in Toronto, and Larry Klein of Sport Magazine. They were all very helpful and supportive of such an award. I also spent more time with Rudi Riska while in New York, and received more of the background on the Heisman Award.

From there I solicited suggestions, recommendations, support and approval from Dennis Poppe and William Hunt of the NCAA, Hal Trumble of the Amateur Hockey Association, Bill Cleary, Harvard hockey coach and Executive Director of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics, Lefty Smith, Notre Dame Hockey coach and President of the American Hockey Coaches Association, along with W.C. Stryker. The next step was to establish an Advisory Committee of well recognized and respected hockey icons and legends that we felt could add their expertise and prestige to the award. With the help of Walter Bush, and the member of the Organizational Committee, a committee was formed that consisted of Thayer Tutt, Bob Ridder, Don Clark, Bill Cleary and Snooks Kelly. Walter Bush would serve as the Chairman of this committee. This committee was responsible for overseeing the Award and for selecting a 13-person selection committee that would ultimately name the winner.

A network of all college coaches in the NCAA, divisions I, II and III, was established to determine the top ten candidates. They all voted for the three best players in their estimation. The votes of the coaches determined who the top 10 finalists would be. Our problem during the first couple of years was that we, in an attempt to be all-inclusive, gave equal weight to Divisions II and III, and ended up with too many players from those divisions in the top 10. Following this, the 13-man selection committee would select the ultimate winner. This selection committee would be made up of equal representation from the East and the Midwest. One person would be designated to represent the daily newspapers, the magazines, the electronic media, the American Hockey Association, the NHL scouts, and the Hockey Coaches Association, thus creating twelve members. The Decathlon Chairman of the Committee was the thirteenth member, and would only vote in the event of a tie. Members were to serve two-year terms. After two years new members were appointed by the Advisory Committee.

The first Hobey Baker Award winner, Neal Broten, was announced at the DAC before a very sparse media audience on March 20, 1981. The Award banquet was held at the Decathlon Athletic Club on March 30, 1981. Attired in black tie, the head table featured Gordie Howe as guest speaker. The Master of Ceremonies was the legendary Ray Scott and the long awaited event was a complete sell out.

Michigan State's Ryan Miller defended the goal against North Dakota and went on to become the 2001 Hobey Baker Award winner as a sophomore goalie. Dryden McKay is now only the third goalie to win the award, following Miller and Robb Stauber (1988).

2001 — Ryan Miller
Michigan State University Spartans

Miller became just the second goaltender to win the Hobey Baker Award doing so in only his sophomore season. He led the nation in all major goalie categories including wins (31), goals against average (1.32), shutouts (10) and set an NCAA record for saves percentage (.950). His two-year total of 18 shutouts also set an NCAA career shutout record. Ryan's outstanding year was capped with six CCHA post season awards including Player of the Year and Best Goaltender honors. The business major set several team and CCHA records along the way helping guide his Spartans to the #1 national ranking heading into the NCAA Frozen Four Championship Tournament. In 2001-02, Miller was again a Hobey Baker top ten finalist while garnering CCHA MVP honors for the second straight year and being named Goalie of the Year for the third straight season, adding eight more shutouts to his NCAA career shutout record (26). Miller spent his first 11 NHL seasons with the Buffalo Sabres, was traded in March of 2013 to the St. Louis Blues, then signed an off-season (2014) deal with the Vancouver Canucks where he played for three seasons. Miller also backstopped the United States to a silver medal at the 2010 Vancouver Olympics. In February of 2019, Miller became the winningest American-born goalie in NHL history, and, is one of only 30 goalies in NHL history to record over 300 wins. Univ. of Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs

Lessard, the Bulldogs' alternate captain, became the seventh Bulldog to be named a Hobey Baker finalist. Lessard came away with top honors in the WCHA by securing a spot on the All-WCHA First Team and claimed the illustrious honor of WCHA Player of the year for 2003-04. Lessard helped the Bulldogs advance to the Frozen Four for the first time in 11 years. He was rewarded for his efforts by being named to the NCAA Midwest Regional All-Tournament Team. He led the nation in points (61) and in goals (30). He was the WCHA co-scoring leader with 19 goals and 20 assists in league play. He also ranked tied for second in the NCAA in power play goals with 12. Lessard ranked fourth in the NCAA in points per game at 1.46. His prolific goal scoring helped secure UMD to its highest (second) and the best regular season finish (23-10-4) in 11 years. Notwithstanding, his scoring ability, he was a +22 plus-minus on the season.

After spending his first five years of pro hockey split between the NHL (Dallas, Tampa Bay) and several AHL teams, Junior spent one season playing in Europe and the 2010-11 season with Idaho in the ECHL. He has retired from pro hockey and resides in his hometown of St. Joseph deBeauce, Quebec where he works as an English language teacher.

2005 — Marty Sertich
Colorado College Tigers

After becoming the second Colorado College player in three years to win the Hobey Baker Award as a junior, Marty Sertich returned for one more year with the Tigers in 2005-06. As a senior he was again named a Hobey Baker finalist. He finished his CC career with 121 assists and 182 points to rank seventh and tied for 12th, respectively, on the school's all-time charts. The 2004-

05 first-team All-American and national scoring champion played in 166 consecutive games for the Tigers without ever missing one, collecting at least one point in 108 of them, including 30 of 42 in his final campaign. He was involved in 35 game-winning goals during his four years with the team, scoring 11 and helping to set up 24. He recorded 53 multiple-point games. Marty spent his first two seasons of pro hockey with Iowa of the AHL followed by two seasons with the Lake Erie Monsters of the AHL. Sertich then played two seasons in Switzerland, followed by three seasons playing in Germany, the last two years with the Hamburg Freezers. He formed Tradition Hockey, a youth training program based in Roseville, MN, and was named an assistant coach of the University of St. Thomas women's hockey team in 2017.

2006 — Matt Carle
University of Denver Pioneers

The two-time defending national champions didn't make it a three-peat however, their outstanding captain Matt Carle gained a boatload of awards. Finishing second in WCHA conference scoring and first in assists, Carle was named the league's Player of the Year as well as the Defensive Player of the Year – a first in league history. He was also named First Team All Star for the second consecutive season. Finishing with 53 points in 39 games (11-42), Carle led the nation in assists and led the nation's defensemen in points and assists. Born and raised in Anchorage, Alaska, Matt turned pro after his junior season and has been an NHL regular since, having played for San Jose, Tampa Bay, four seasons with the Philadelphia Flyers and was reacquired by Tampa in 2012 where he has spent four seasons with the Lightning. Carle signed as a free agent with Nashville in 2016 and retired from pro hockey in October. He played in 857 career NHL games and posted 327 career points in twelve NHL seasons. Matt presently works in the commercial real estate business.

2007 — Ryan Duncan
Univ. of North Dakota Fighting Sioux

It is uncommon for a collegiate player in only his sophomore season to be nominated to receive the Hobey Baker Award, and rarer still to claim the prize. North Dakota forward Ryan Duncan became only the third sophomore player in the 27 years of the Hobey to be recognized as college hockey's top player. The high scoring forward from Calgary, Alberta helped the Fighting Sioux to their third straight NCAA Frozen Four appearance. In 43 games, the diminutive Duncan (5'8 and 155 pounds) scored 31 goals, second best in the nation, and had 26 assists for 57 points planting him fourth in the nation in scoring. Those efforts helped North Dakota to an awesome second half of the season as the Sioux completed their season on a 17-4-4 run as one of college hockey's hottest teams. Along with the Hobey, Duncan was named WCHA Player of the Year, First Team WCHA and a first team West All American. A pro hockey free agent, Duncan is a business major and a WCHA All Academic student-athlete with a 3.20 GPA. Ryan returned for his final two seasons at North Dakota and upon graduation, spent two seasons with Salzburg of the Austrian Elite League. He spent the 2011-12 season with Portland in the AHL; returned to Salzburg for the 2012-13 season; then one season with Munich in the German elite league. Duncan then finished his career with five more seasons back with Salzburg in Austria before retiring following the 2018-19 campaign.

2008 — Kevin Porter
University of Michigan Wolverines

Porter is a senior forward who almost single-handedly helped Michigan to their national record 23rd Frozen Four. Last spring in two games at the East Regional, Porter had a hand in six of the seven Michigan goals bagging five goals and one assist, including four goals in a 5-1 win over Niagara. He finished second in the nation in points and goals with 33 goals, 30 assists for 63 points in 43 games. Porter was tied for second in the nation with 15 power play goals; recorded 18 multiple-point games and had a plus-minus of +33. His steady, consistent two-way play didn't go unnoticed as he was named the CCHA Player of the Year and was a finalist for the league's Best Defensive Forward. The First Team CCHA honoree was named the Hockey Commissioners January National Player of the Month. From Northville, Michigan, Porter was a draft pick of Phoenix. A General Studies major, Kevin spent time with visits to Mott Children's Hospital and volunteered for various Make-A-Wish Foundation activities. Kevin spent his first two pro seasons split between Phoenix of the NHL and San Antonio of the AHL; was traded in March 2010 to the Colorado Avalanche, playing three seasons there; signed with Buffalo as a free agent in 2012, completing two seasons in the Sabres organization. After spending the 2014-15 season with Grand Rapids of the AHL, Porter signed with the Pittsburgh Penguins and has spent the past five seasons with the organization. Porter played three seasons with Rochester in the AHL and retired from pro hockey following the 2019-20 season.

2009 — Matt Gilroy Boston University Terriers

Electing to forego a pro career following his junior season, Matt Gilroy returned to Boston University to complete his education, captain the BU Terriers for his senior season and play on the same team as his freshman brother Kevin. All things considered, Gilroy's decision proved monumental. Boston University's dominating season culminated with a national championship and Matt won the school's second Hobey Baker Award (Chris Drury in 1998). The Terriers were ranked No. 1 for a large portion of the season, winning the Hockey East regular season and playoff titles. The senior defenseman produced 37 points in 45 games on 8 goals and 29 assists to finish tied for second in the nation amongst defensemen.

A management studies major, Matt became the first defenseman in Hockey East history to earn First Team all-star honors three times. He was also named the winner of the Walter Brown Award as the best American-born college player in New England. Initially a walk-on at BU, Gilroy concluded his career playing in 145 consecutive games. Growing up in North Bellmore, NY, Matt helps his family run a summer basketball league on Long Island, volunteers with the Autism Speaks program and was a driving force behind the "Starr of the Game" benefit to honor long-time BU booster Meryl Starr Herman. Matt wore number 97 to honor his deceased brother Timmy. Gilroy originally signed as a free agent with the New York Rangers where he spent two seasons. In the summer of 2011, he signed as a free agent with the Tampa Bay Lightning and was traded mid-season to the Ottawa Senators; spent parts of the next two seasons with the Rangers and Florida Panthers. Gilroy has moved overseas to play in the KHL, first with Moscow Oblast Atlant for one season, then two seasons with Moscow Spartak, and the 2017-18 season with Jokerit Helsinki, also of the KHL. Gilroy also played for Team USA during the 2018 Winter Olympics in South Korea. Matt spent the 2018-19 season playing in the Swiss A league for Rapperswil-Jona, and then retired from pro hockey.

2010 — Blake Geoffrion Univ. of Wisconsin-Madison Badgers

Certainly the family bloodlines don't hurt, but Blake Geoffrion established himself as one of the nation's premiere players. The tri-captain of the Badgers was a complete player and helped Wisconsin to the national championship game. Utilized in all situations, the senior forward from Brentwood, Tenn., Geoffrion skated a regular shift, received ample special teams time on both power play and penalty killing, took key faceoffs (where he was a remarkable 59% on faceoffs) and had an amazing shooting percentage of 23%. Geoffrion was named MVP of the West Regional and overall recorded 28 goals and 22 assists in 40 games, ranking third in the nation in goal scoring and led the country with 15 power play goals. Finishing second in the WCHA scoring race and topping the conference in goals and power play goals, he was selected as a First Team all-star. And the family bloodlines? His dad Danny, granddad Bernie "Boom Boom" and his great grandpa Howie Morenz all played for the Montreal Canadiens. Boom Boom and Howie are both enshrined in the Hockey Hall of Fame and have nine Stanley Cups between them. A Consumer Science Major, Geoffrion spent time off the ice visiting UW Children's Hospital, was a mentor to a cancer patient and a Peer Leader lending assistance to UW students. He was a second-round draft pick of the Nashville Predators and spent time between Nashville and Milwaukee of the AHL; played for both teams again in 2011-12 before being traded to the Montreal Canadiens having spent time in the NHL and with Hamilton in the AHL. Geoffrion suffered a head injury 10 games into the 2012-13 season with Hamilton and has retired from hockey. Geoffrion then scouted for one season for Columbus Bluejackets before being promoted to Assistant General Manager of their AHL affiliate, the Cleveland Monsters. Blake is now working for the Korn Ferry recruitment agency.

Past award winners Bill Watson, Jack Connolly and Scott Perunovich from the University of Minnesota Duluth paid a salute to fellow Bulldog and 1984 award winner Tom Kurvers, who passed away from cancer in June 2021.

2011 — Andy Miele University of Miami RedHawks

Andy Miele (pronounced mee-lee), outpaced everyone in college hockey piling up 71 points in just 39 games played, the most points in Division I hockey in eight years. His closest competitor was 11 points behind. Overall, Miele scored 24 goals and 47 assists becoming the first Miami RedHawk to win the Hobey. The senior from Grosse Pointe Woods, Michigan, won the CCHA conference scoring title posting 16 goals and 40 assists for 56 points in 28 league games, an average of two points per game and the most points in conference play in 19 years. Amazingly, his 40 assists were more than the second place player had total points, a first in league history. His 47 assists in all games led the nation by six assists. Miele earned CCHA Player of the Year honors and a First Team all-star berth. He had multiple point efforts in 22 of the 39 games he played in — an incredible model of consistency. An American Studies major with a Coaching minor, Miele joined the U.S. National Team for the IIHF World Championship in Slovakia in 2011. He signed a pro contract as a free agent with the Phoenix Coyotes, then in 2014 with Grand Rapids of the AHL where he finished second in AHL scoring in 2013-14 and led Grand Rapids in scoring for the second straight year in 2015-16. Following one season in Lehigh Valley of the AHL, Miele moved to Sweden for the 2017-18 season, splitting his time between Malmo and Vaxjo HC. Miele spent the 2018-19 season playing for the Nizhny Novgorod Torpedo of the KHL before returning to North America where he played for Tucson in the AHL during the 2019-20 season. Miele once again headed overseas for his second stint with Nizhny Novgorod of the KHL for the 2020-21 campaign, played two seasons there and completed the 2021-22 season with Lausanne of the Swiss A League.

2012 — Jack Connolly Univ. of Minnesota Duluth Bulldogs

As captain of the defending national champions, Jack Connolly had a fantastic season winning the WCHA scoring title, being named a First Team all-star for the third straight season and capped it off as the league's Player of the Year. A three-time All American, Connolly was second in the nation in points and assists accumulating 20 goals and 40 assists for 60 points in 41 games.

Connolly never missed a college game, having played in 166 straight. Amazingly, he was held pointless in consecutive games only twice in his illustrious four-year career and punctuated it with a team record 22-game point streak in his Hobey Baker season. Tremendous skill as a playmaking center defined Jack's game as he had an innate ability to see the ice and make smooth, intelligent puck decisions. The hometown hero is active in community endeavors helping with trash clean-up in the Adopt-A-Highway program, visiting Duluth hospitals, volunteering with the Boys and Girls Clubs of America and working with various cancer fund-raisers. He was a Communications major with a 3.3 GPA. Hockey runs deep in the Connolly family as Jack's older brother Chris, was the captain and second leading scorer for Boston University the same season. Jack completed his tenth pro season in Sweden, and after playing four seasons with Rogle BK, he has spent the past four seasons with Lulea HF.

2013 — Drew LeBlanc
St. Cloud State University Huskies

The Hobey Baker winning year for Drew LeBlanc was truly an amazing one. Following a horrific broken leg injury the prior season prompting a medical redshirt, LeBlanc returned for a fifth season to captain the Huskies. The masterful playmaking center from Hermantown, Minnesota had an outstanding season leading the nation with 37 assists in 42 games while contributing 13 goals for 50 total points (seventh in the nation). His creative playmaking skills while on offense were matched by his diligent efforts in his own defensive zone, helping St. Cloud State to a share of their first WCHA regular season title and their first ever appearance in the NCAA Frozen Four championship. LeBlanc's magical season helped him attain a first in the 52-year history of the WCHA — named both the Outstanding Student-Athlete of the Year and the WCHA Player of the Year. He took on an added academic load to complete his Math Education degree by student teaching all season long. He has been active in community outreach programs assisting new students on campus with move-ins, helping out at local hockey clinics and participating in a variety of team functions throughout his career at St. Cloud State. A pro hockey free agent, LeBlanc signed with the Chicago Blackhawks and spent two seasons with Rockford of the AHL. Drew then headed to Germany and just completed his seventh season with the Augsburg Panthers.

2014 — Johnny Gaudreau
Boston College Eagles

Many referred to Johnny Gaudreau (pronounced GOO-dreau), as Johnny Hockey and for a very good reason. He tore through the college hockey season averaging two points per game, putting up 80 points in 40 games to record the highest point total in Division I college hockey in 11 years. Gaudreau lit up everyone, recording points in all but two games, including a 31-game point streak to tie a Hockey East record (Paul Kariya, Maine, 1993). Two was his lucky number: two-time Hockey East scoring champion, two-time Hockey East Player of the Year, two-time all-conference, two-time First Team All American and two-time Hobey Baker hat-trick finalist. Gaudreau completed his Hobey season leading the nation in goals (36), assists (44), points (80) and was second in plus-minus (+42). He saved his best for last — in 3 NCAA playoff games, Gaudreau had 4 goals and 7 assists. A communications major, Gaudreau signed a professional contract with the team who drafted him, the Calgary Flames and became just the fifth player in NHL history to score a goal on his first shot in his first NHL game. Off the ice, Johnny spent time visiting elementary schools and mentoring a special needs team. In his first NHL season (2014-15), Gaudreau scored 24 goals and 40 assists in 80 games and was a finalist for the Calder Trophy as NHL Rookie of the Year. Johnny just completed his eighth NHL season and has become one of the NHL's elite scorers. During the 2021-22 season, Gaudreau finished second in NHL scoring and during the off season signed a seven-year free agent deal with the Columbus Blue Jackets.

2015 — Jack Eichel
Boston University Terriers

For the first time in 22 years, a college freshman, Jack Eichel (IKE-ul) won the coveted Hobey Baker Award. The 18-year old rookie sensation had a fantastic season leading the nation in points (71), assists (45), power play points (23) and plus-minus (+51) in 40 games. He helped his Terrier squad to a berth in the national championship game and finished the season with a flurry bagging 8 goals and 8 assists in 8 playoff games. Eichel started the season as a 17-year old, collected two goals and two assists in his first college hockey game and continued by recording points in 10 consecutive games (7 goals, 12 assists) to open his college career. A fluid, effortless skater, Eichel made everyone around him successful with his uncanny hockey sense, regularly setting up teammates. In addition to the Hobey, Jack was honored with a plethora of awards: Hockey East Player of the Year and Rookie of the Year, conference scoring champion, First Team Hockey East and a member of the All-Rookie Team, Most Valuable Player at the Hockey East playoff tournament, National Rookie of the Year by the Hockey Commissioners Association and a First Team All American by the Hockey Coaches Association. Jack is enrolled in the College of General Studies. He spends off-ice time mentoring an 11-year old brain cancer patient and helps out with the Terriers team partnership with Autism Speaks. Eichel was drafted second overall in 2015 by Buffalo and finished second in scoring on the Sabres with 24 goals and 56 points in 81 games in his rookie season. He just completed his sixth season with the Buffalo Sabres, is their team captain, and has recorded 355 points in 375 career games, elevating his status as one of the NHL's premiere players. After completing six seasons in Buffalo, Eichel was traded to the Vegas Golden Knights in November of 2021.

2016 — Jimmy Vesey
Harvard University

Returning to campus for his senior season paid off for 2016 Hobey Baker Award winner Jimmy Vesey (VEE-zee). For two straight years, the senior captain of the Crimson was a Hobey Baker Hat Trick finalist, was named ECAC Player of the Year, Ivy League Player of the Year, ECAC First Team all-conference and winner of the Walter Brown Award as the best American-born player in New England. Vesey finished the season recording 24 goals and 22 assists for 46 points in 33 games. Over the past two years, he has scored more goals than any other player in college hockey — 56, after bagging a nation's best 32 last season. It was a happy day on campus when Vesey spurned offers to turn professional in order to complete his senior year as a student-athlete. A dynamic offensive talent, Vesey was an impact player in all phases of the game and was widely recognized as the hardest worker on the team. A native of North Reading, Massachusetts, Jimmy was a Government major and has been ECAC All Academic every year. Off the ice, Vesey helped raise money for the Travis Roy Foundation and the Franciscan Hospital for Children. He was a third-round draft pick of Nashville of the NHL, but elected to test the free agent market, signing with the New York Rangers where he played for three seasons. An off-season trade sent him to Buffalo for the 2019-20 campaign. He spent the 2020-21 season starting with Toronto before being traded to Vancouver. Last season, Vesey signed as a free agent with the New Jersey Devils.

2017 — Will Butcher
University of Denver

Will Butcher became just the sixth defenseman in the 37 year history of the Hobey Baker Award to be so honored. The Pioneers captain described the accomplishment as “a team award,” as he helped Denver to a national championship. Equally efficient at both ends of the ice, Butcher ranked second in the nation in points by a defenseman tallying seven goals and dishing out 30 assists for 37 points in 43 games. His plus/minus of +27 ranked tied for sixth overall in the nation. Multiple conference awards highlighted his fantastic season including the NCHC Player of the Year, Offensive Defenseman of the Year, and for the second straight year, First Team all-conference. An all-academic performer in the classroom, Will completed his Bachelor’s degree in Business. He was a finalist for the nationally recognized senior CLASS award. Butcher is an avid muskie fisherman, and spends volunteer time with Hockey Saves, assisting military personal in learning and playing the game of hockey. A two-time All American, Will was a fifth round draft pick of the Colorado Avalanche (2013) but chose the free agent route in the summer of 2017 and signed a pro contract with the New Jersey Devils, tallying 44 points in 81 games in his rookie season. Will completed four seasons with the Devils as a solid play-making defenseman, and was traded last summer to the Buffalo Sabres.

2018 — Adam Gaudette
Northeastern University

Best known as a tireless competitor, Adam Gaudette parlayed his almost 30 minutes of ice-time per game in becoming the nation’s leading scorer. Adam was joined on the top line of Northeastern University by another Hobey top ten finalist Dylan Sikura (third in the nation in scoring), as the Huskies duo terrorized goalies across the land. Gaudette powered home 30 goals, dished out 30 assists and totaled 60 points in just 38 games, averaging a national best 1.58 points per game. His passion to compete at both ends of the ice with deceptive speed, earned him multiple honors including First Team All American, Hockey East Conference Player of the Year, league scoring champion and First Team all-conference. Lethal on the power play, Gaudette sniped 11 power play goals and led the nation by recording 27 power play points. The junior forward from Braintree, Massachusetts becomes the first player from Northeastern University to win the Hobey Baker Award. A Communications major, Adam signed a pro contract with the team that drafted him, the Vancouver Canucks, foregoing his senior season. Active in several community projects, Adam assisted in children’s cancer efforts, helped Northeastern students on move-in weekend and read to elementary school students. Adam spent the better part of three seasons with the Canucks, but was traded late in the 2020-21 season to the Chicago Blackhawks. Following two seasons with the Hawks, Gaudette played last season with the Ottawa Senators and in July of 2022, was signed by the Toronto Maple Leafs.

2019 — Cale Makar
University of Massachusetts

Known as a dynamic player equally effective at both ends of the ice, Cale Makar was named Hockey East Player of the Year and First Team all-conference, becoming the circuit’s first defenseman in 20 years to lead Hockey East in scoring. On the season, Makar had 16 goals and 33 assists for 49 points in 41 games, finishing third in the nation in points; tops amongst all defensemen and just one point back of the national lead. Makar also finished third in the nation in assists and contributed 15 points on the power play. His attention to details in all three zones led to a plus/minus of +32, which was second amongst all college hockey players.

Makar, a sophomore assistant captain from Calgary, Alberta helped guide the University of Massachusetts to several program firsts: a Hockey East regular season championship, their first ever number one national ranking and their first trip to the NCAA Frozen Four, culminating in an appearance in the national championship game. Upon conclusion of his college hockey season, Makar signed a pro contract with the Colorado Avalanche and became the first defenseman in NHL history to score a goal while making his NHL debut during the Stanley Cup playoffs. He just completed his third full season with the Avalanche, helping them to the Stanley Cup title. During the recent 2021-22 season, Makar was the second highest scoring defenseman in the NHL, won the Norris Trophy as the NHL’s top defenseman, was named the Conn Smythe Trophy winner as the MVP of the playoffs. Makar becomes the only player ever to win the Hobey, Calder Trophy (NHL Rookie of the Year), Norris Trophy, Conn Smythe and Stanley Cup.

2020 — Scott Perunovich
University of Minnesota Duluth

It has been an incredible run the past three seasons for Scott Perunovich (purr-roo-na-vitch). Coming off back-to-back national titles, the Bulldogs were well positioned for a three-peat led by the NCHC Player of the Year. He finished the season with six goals and 34 assists for 40 points in 34 games. Enroute, he became the first defenseman to win the regular season conference scoring title and ended up tenth overall in the nation in scoring. A tremendous playmaker, Perunovich was second in the nation in assists. Highly dangerous with the man advantage, he was tied for first in the nation in both power play points and power play assists. In addition to being named NCHC Player of the Year, Perunovich was named First Team all-conference and Offensive Defenseman of the Year – both for the third straight season. A Communications major and three-time All American, he was named national Player of the Year by College Hockey News. A draft choice of St. Louis (2nd round), he signed a pro contract with the Blues, but did not play in 2020-21 due to a pre-season injury. He split time last season between St. Louis and Springfield of the AHL.

2021 — Cole Caufield
University of Wisconsin

Known as a prolific scorer, Cole Caufield soared to the top of the national scoring charts in a pandemic shortened college hockey season. Producing 30 goals and 22 assists for 52 points in just 31 games, he led the nation in a multitude of key offensive categories: most goals; most points; most power play points (24); most power play goals (11); most shots on goal (165); most shots per game (averaging 5.3 shots per game); and averaged 1.68 points per game. The sophomore forward became the first player in the eight-year history of the Big Ten conference to win back-to-back scoring titles and was named the Big Ten’s Player of the Year and First Team all-conference. Caufield’s great hands and excellent shot complemented his innate ability to find open ice for quality scoring chances. The home-state product from Stevens Point, finished the season with a flurry, recording 15 multiple point games in his final 18 contests. Caufield, a first-round draft choice of the Montreal Canadiens (15th overall in 2019), elected to forgo his final two seasons of college hockey and signed a pro contract with Montreal. After a two-game stint in the American Hockey League, Caufield joined the Canadiens, helping Montreal to the Stanley Cup finals, producing four goals and eight assists in 20 NHL playoff games. His Hobey Baker campaign also included his second straight World Junior Championships appearance, helping Team USA to the 2021 gold medal. Caufield just completed his second season with the Canadiens.

The first Hobey Baker Award winner selected was Neal Broten from the University of Minnesota. The winner as announced on March 20, 1981 and the first Award banquet was held ten days later.

HOBEBY BAKER AWARD FOUNDER

The Hobey Baker Award lost its most valuable player this past January when the award's creator, Charles "Chuck" Bard passed away.

Growing up in Minneapolis, Bard graduated from Minneapolis Central High School then joined the U.S. Navy for a two-year stint serving in the Pacific Theater during World War II. Following his service, Bard attended college at Augsburg College in Minneapolis and grad school at the University of Wisconsin. He entered the banking industry working 17 years at Northwestern National Bank. While there, Chuck became involved in creating the first suburban athletic club in the U.S., and ultimately, was one of the five founders of the Decathlon Athletic Club of Bloomington, MN serving as CEO until his retirement in 1991.

It was while Chuck was serving as CEO of the Decathlon that he formulated a plan to honor the top college hockey player in the nation with an award much like the Heisman Award for football and the Wooden Award for basketball. Assembling an organizational committee, the wheels were put in motion, the name of the award was selected from a group of four finalists and the Hobey Baker Award was introduced for the 1980-81 college hockey season. Neal Broten from the University of Minnesota was the first winner.

Since then, the Hobey has blossomed into college hockey's top individual prize, achieving worldwide recognition for what the award represents: outstanding hockey skills, leadership, strength of character, sportsmanship and scholastic achievement. The annual award could never have happened without the strong determination of its founder, Chuck Bard.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
Bob Peters
 2001 LEGEND OF COLLEGE HOCKEY
 HOBEY BAKER AWARD COMMITTEE MEMBER

The Hobey Baker Award lost a great friend on December 15, 2021 with the passing of longtime hockey coach R.H. "Bob" Peters. Peters was a longtime member of the Hobey committee and for many years, chaired the Legends of College Hockey award. He too, earned that distinction when so honored in 2001.

Most notably, Peters was a college hockey head coach for 37 years, 35 of those with Bemidji State University. Following a two-year stint coaching the University of North Dakota, Peters in 1966 took over a small-college program in the early stages of its existence – at Bemidji State. Within two seasons Peters led BSU to its first national title and set the foundation for what would become one of the most dominant programs in college hockey. When he retired in 2001, he had the sixth most wins as a head coach in college hockey history, 744 with 702 of those coming at Bemidji State. Peters helped start three different college hockey leagues – the ICHA, the NCHA and the CHA.

Peters, the only coach to lead a team to a national championship game in three divisions of college hockey (Division II, III, and NAIA), developed five NHL players and numerous Olympians and All-Americans. Overall, he won 13 national championships, 15 conference titles and had an NCAA record 43-game unbeaten streak from 1983-1985. It important to note, that over 100 of his former players went on to coaching positions themselves throughout the high school and collegiate levels. He was named coach of the year in the NAIA, NCHA and WCHA.

Besides his head coaching role, he served many years as Athletic Director at BSU and was a founding member of the College Hockey America conference in 2001 and served as its commissioner until 2008. When the home of the Beavers Sanford Center was opened in 2010, the ice sheet was named the R.H. "Bob" Peters rink in his honor. Coach has been inducted as a member of Halls of Fame at Bemidji State, the University North Dakota, the Fort Frances Sports Hall of Fame and the Northwestern Ontario Sports Hall of Fame. A true legend of college hockey, thanks coach for all whom you touched.

IN LOVING MEMORY OF
John "Jack" Almquist
 1991 HOBEY BAKER AWARD COMMITTEE CHAIR
 HOBEY BAKER FOUNDATION TREASURER

At the age of 84 on November 7, 2021, our beloved Hobey brother Jack Almquist passed away peacefully with his family at his side. He was the son of the legendary Roseau Hockey Coach, Oscar Almquist, whose name is commemorated each year with the Minnesota State High School Hockey Association's Annual Coach of the Year Award. Jack began his tenure on the Hobey Baker committee some 40 years ago shortly after the committee was formulated by our founder, Chuck Bard. Jack served as the eleventh chairman of the Hobey Baker Committee in 1991 and was treasurer and a member of the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation Executive Committee for the past thirty years. His financial leadership and "Down to Earth" sage advice has truly played an instrumental part in the successful organization we have become today.

As president of the Decathlon Club, Jack was almost single handily able to garner a $125,000 endowment contribution to the Hobey Baker Memorial Award Foundation allocated from the Decathlon Club Fire Insurance Proceeds. Jack truly epitomized what "American Volunteerism" is all about! Not only have we lost a dear brother, the entire hockey community has lost a dear friend, as well. Our deepest sympathies are extended to Jack's beloved wife Jan of some 59 years, his children Luci, Traci, Tom, Steve, daughter-in-law Paula and nine wonderful grandchildren.

We will all miss Jack, but celebrate that he is now at peace and is home with our Lord and Savior.

LOOKING BACK AT LAST YEAR'S BANQUET

2021 Hobey Baker Award recipient Cole Caufield is joined by his parents, Paul and Kelly Caufield.

Cole Caufield accepted the Hobey Baker Memorial Award trophy as the top college hockey player in the nation for 2021.

The award trophy was presented to Cole Caufield by 2021 Award Committee Chairman John Dahl.

ESPN Sportscenter host Clay Matvick served as Master of Ceremonies for the 2021 Awards Banquet.

University of Wisconsin Head Coach Tony Granato shared comments on Caufield's collegiate career.

Caufield was joined by past award recipients Marty Sertich, Ryan Duncan, Bill Watson, Scott Perunovich, Robb Stauber and Jack Connolly.

Guests enjoyed a delicious meal followed by the Award presentation and an acceptance speech by winner Cole Caufield.

Jostens representative Bethany Boelter presented Cole Caufield with his commemorative ring, a keepsake awarded to each award recipient.

1988 recipient Robb Stauber welcomed Caufield into the elite circle of Hobey Baker Award winners.

Twenty-five-year head coach at the University of Minnesota Duluth Mike Sertich was presented with the 2021 Legend of College Hockey Award.
